Numb. 13100.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 26, to Saturday May 30, 1789.

HIS Majesty in Council has been pleased to appoint Thomas Denton, of Warnell Hall, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Cumberland.

Whitehall, May 30.

The King has been pleased to order a Congé d'Elire to pass the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester to elect a Bishop of that See, void by the Translation of the Right Reverend Father in God Samuel, late Bishop thereof, to the See of St. Asaph; and His Majesty has also been pleased, by His Royal Sign Manual, to recommend the Reverend Richard Beadon, Doctor in Divinity, to be chosen, by the said Dean and Chapter, Bishop of the said See of Gloucester.

Whitehall, May 30.

The following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Leven, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in National Assembly, embrace with Joy this first Opportunity of approaching the Throne with our most dutiful and sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's Recovery.

At a Time when the Inhabitants of the British Empire were rejoicing under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, in the Blessings of Peace, and the manifold Advantages derived from the Rank which Great Britain holds amongst the Nations of the Earth, it pleased the Almighty, by the Alarm which lately filled the Hearts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to teach them how entirely the Prosperity of Nations depends upon the Will of Heaven. The Anxiety which they felt during the Continuance of your Majesty's Illness, and the Fervour of their Wishes and Prayers for your Recovery, were the spontaneous Tribute of Duty and Affection to a Sovereign, who is endeared to His People by these amiable Virtues, of which He is the illustrious Pattern, as well as by that sacred Regard to the Principles of a free Constitution which has uniformly distinguished His Reign; and the Unanimity and the Zeal which have marked the public Demonstrations of Joy, correspond to the Sentiments of entire Satisfaction and Thankfulness with which a great and happy People are united in Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, receive from Heaven that inestimable Gift, by which the Almighty hath graciously vouchsafed to reward the National Loyalty.

While we thus presume to speak in the Name of the great Body of the People of this Country who are under our Care, with a Confidence arising from the perfect Knowledge of their Sentiments, acquired by a constant Intercourse with them in the Discharge of our sacred Functions, permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, to assure you, that no Class of your Majesty's Subjects were more deeply interested in the great Event which has diffused such universal Joy than the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland. Entertaining no Doubt of a Continuance of the Royal Protection under the Government of a Prince who has been the Nursing Father of the Church, and being assured that our zealous Endeavours to promote the Interests of Religion and Virtue will always receive Countenance from that Piety which ennobles the other Graces of your Majesty's Character, we remember the gracious Answer that has been given to our Prayers amongst the many Mercies which we are accustomed to trace in the History of this favoured Land; and we lift our Souls in Thanksgiving to the God of our Fathers, who, by restoring to us a King whom we love and honor as the faithful Guardian of our Rights, hath afforded us a gracious Pledge of their being transmitted unimpaired to latest Posterity.

It shall be our constant Study to cherish these Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Gratitude to Almighty God, which universally prevail; and the first Wish of our Heats will be fulfilled, if a lasting Sense of this great National Blessing shall revive a Spirit of Religion, and, by disposing the Minds of Men to learn their Lessons of Wisdom which it conveys, shall, through the Blessing of God, prove instrumental in promoting that Righteousness which exalteth a Nation.

That your Majesty may live long to be a Blessing to your Family, to behold the Happiness of your People, to enjoy the exalted Satisfaction of requiting their Affection, and to maintain the Glory and Prosperity of the British Empire; and that succeeding Princes of the House of Brunswick, formed upon your Example, may sway the British Sceptre with the same Justice and Moderation, and may receive from their Subjects the same Homage and Love, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Geo. Hill, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1789.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Gracious Letter with which your Majeſty hath honoured this Meeting of the National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland was received with becoming Reſpect and Gratitude.

The diſtinguiſhed Marks of Royal Approbation which your Majeſty hath ſo frequently vouchſafed to give us, and which you condeſcend to repeat at this Time, afford us the moſt ſincere Satisfaction, and are a moſt animating Motive to induce us to perſevere in our unwearied Attention to the great Cauſe of Religion and Virtue, and to embrace every Opportunity of teſtifying our Duty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government. We received with the moſt lively Gratitude the gracious Aſſurances contained in your Majeſty's Letter, that the Continuance of ſo laudable a Conduct will always meet with your Royal Protection; and we reſt with entire Confidence on the repeated Expreſſions of your Majeſty's Determination to ſupport and maintain the Church of Scotland, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in the full and free Enjoyment of all her juſt Rights and Privileges.

We ſhall endeavour to maintain in all our Proceedings that Harmony and Unanimity which are ſo warmly recommended by your Majeſty, which are ſo agreeable to the Spirit of our Religion, and ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Dignity and Efficacy of our Deliberations; and it ſhall be our earneſt Study to direct our Councils to the laudable Purpoſes of enforcing due Obedience to the Laws of our moſt happy Conſtitution, and inculcating on the People committed to our Care a conſcientious Diſcharge of thoſe Religious Duties which are inſeparable from their Welfare and Happineſs.

Your Majeſty has given us a gracious Pledge of your favourable Diſpoſition towards the Church of Scotland, by again appointing the Earl of Leven to be your Commiſſioner to repreſent your Royal Perſon, a Nobleman whoſe Fidelity and Zeal towards your Majeſty, and whoſe Attachment to the Intereſts of the Church of Scotland, are univerſally known, and who has formerly diſcharged the Duty of the high and important Office which he now fills in ſuch a Manner as to render him moſt acceptable to us.

Your Majeſty's Royal Donation of One Thouſand Pounds for propagating the Proteſtant Religion in the Highlands and Iſlands of Scotland, we regard as a freſh Proof of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the true Intereſts of all your Subjects. We feel ourſelves highly honoured in being made the Inſtruments of fulfilling your Majeſty's pious Intentions; and we ſhall ſtudy to make the moſt prudent and effectual Application of the Sum with which we are entruſted.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, may protect your Perſon and proſper the Adminiſtration of your Government; that He may bleſs the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that, after reigning long with Wiſdom and Felicity over a free, a grateful and a happy People, you may enter thoſe bleſſed Regions where pious and virtuous Princes receive a Crown of Glory, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by

Geo. Hill, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1789.

The following Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Leven, His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner, to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, has been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in National Aſſembly, preſume to approach your Majeſty with our humble Congratulations upon an Event moſt intereſting to your Happineſs, and moſt joyful to His Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Recovery of our beloved Sovereign from His late alarming Illneſs.

The moſt exalted Station is not exempted from thoſe pungent Diſtreſſes which, in this mixed State, are often occaſioned by the moſt delicate and amiable Affections of the Human Heart. But the Diſtreſs of your Majeſty was alleviated by thoſe Conſolations which true Religion opens to a devout Mind in the Hour of deep Affliction. The God of Grace, whom you had honoured in the Time of Proſperity, while He tried the Tenderneſs of your Nature, was pleaſed to ſupport your Faith and Patience by that Strength with which He ſtrengthens the Souls of His Servants; and the Deliverance which He hath wrought for us hath graciouſly rewarded that Piety which adorns the Throne, by giving you the Garment of Praiſe for the Spirit of Heavineſs.

Your Majeſty witneſſed in the Solicitude which all Ranks expreſt during the Illneſs of the King, how truly He reigns in the Hearts of His Subjects. Your Majeſty received, in the Sympathy with which a great Nation took Part in your Sorrows, and in the Gratitude, Reſpect and Confidence with which they looked up to your Character, the Recompence provided for thoſe Qualities by which Greatneſs is rendered amiable; and your Majeſty has now the Satisfaction of obſerving, that the Demonſtrations of Joy for that National Bleſſing, by which God hath wiped the Tears from your Eyes, are mingled with Expreſſions of the moſt affectionate Intereſt in the Happineſs of a Queen, whoſe Virtues have united all His Majeſty's Subjects in Her Praiſe.

That your Majeſty may long be preſerved to be a Bleſſing to the King, to form the Minds of your Illuſtrious Offſpring, to be the Pattern of your Sex, and the Protectreſs of Virtue and Religion; that God, in whom alone the Families of the Earth are bleſſed, may perpetuate your Domeſtic Felicity; that you may taſte the moſt exquiſite Delight which a Mother's Heart can know, in beholding the Virtue and Happineſs of your Poſterity; and that, after enjoying the largeſt Meaſure of Good which can crown the moſt excellent Characters in this World, you may receive, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, that Crown of Life which fadeth not away, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by

Geo. Hill, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1789.

The following Addreſs having been delivered to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, the Miniſters of the Engliſh Reformed Churches, by Law eſtabliſhed in the Province of Zealand, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, with the utmoſt Cordiality and Satisfaction, we join in in the general Voice of Congratulation on the happy Recovery of your Majeſty from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition;

An Event whoſe Magnitude and Importance has been fully demonſtrated by the uncommon and univerſal Degree of Joy with which the announcing of its Certitude has been received, not only in Great Britain but in every Part of Europe!

An Event too, which, while it clearly evinces in what high Eſtimation every Prince who purſues the ſame Means your Majeſty has done to prove himſelf the Father and Friend of his People, will always be held by Men of Underſtanding and Religion, at the ſame Time confirms and illuſtrates that momentous and chearing Doctrine of Divine Revelation, which leads us to conclude, that every Circumſtance conſpiring to the real Welfare of human Society is under the immediate Direction of an all-wiſe, benevolent and ever-watchful Providence, under the Superintendency of that great and glorious Being who has graciouſly heard and anſwered the affectionate Petitions which have been ſent up to the Divine Throne, by Thouſands and Millions, in Behalf of your Majeſty.

Permit us then, great Sire, though placed by the Ordination of Heaven without the Bounds of your Majeſty's Dominions, to teſtify the real Sentiments and Feelings of our Minds on this happy Occaſion, and to certify your Majeſty that, (conſiſtent with the Duties we owe to the Government under which we live,) we are never unmindful of our Native Land, or indifferent to its moſt valuable Intereſts. We therefore ceaſe not, either in our public or private Devotions, moſt fervently to beſeech the Great King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to bleſs your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Adminiſtration, to preſerve your ineſtimable Life, and lengthen it out to the lateſt Period of human Exiſtence on this Earth, and fill up every Moment of it with each Satisfaction and Delight of a public, domeſtic and perſonal Nature; and when your Majeſty ſhall reſign a temporal for an eternal Crown, (an Event we hope, for the Sake of all thoſe more nearly or remotely concerned, is yet very diſtant,) may your Royal and exemplary Virtues be conveyed down to your Majeſty's Succeſſors, that they, as your Majeſty has ever done, may make it their higheſt Ambition and unwearied Study to reign as much in the Hearts as over the Perſons of a free, united and happy People.

That the choiceſt Bleſſings of Heaven, in their utmoſt Extent and Duration, may remain with your Majeſty, your Royal moſt amiable Conſort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and every Branch of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe is the united Wiſh and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt cordial Friends and moſt devoted humble Servants,

The Miniſters of the Engliſh Churches in the Province of Zealand.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Wilcocke, Miniſter of the Engliſh Church in Middleburgh.]
